

RISK (WHAT COULD GO WRONG?)	CONSEQUENCE C (1-5)	PROBABILITY P (1-5)	C*P	MEASURES THAT REDUCE P	MEASURES THAT REDUCE K	RESPONSIBLE FOR MEASURE
Henriette's attire or appearance does not live up to the two mothers' expectations.	3	2	6	We must ensure that the clothes are purchased well in advance. We must reserve plenty of time for getting dressed, hair, makeup, etc.	Throughout the wedding, we must carry a package with safety pins, extra stockings and cosmetics.	Lærke
Igor gets into an argument with Henriette's parents, who he suspects look down on him.	3	3	9	We must ensure that Igor does not have too much to drink and does not start arguing with Henriette's parents.	If a quarrel occurs, we must create a diversion. Henriette must control Igor and ensure he does not get drunk or argue. The diversion has been agreed to Henriette embracing him and pulling him outside where she kisses him and tells him how much she loves him.	Henriette
Tine as the project manager misses something when planning or fails during the execution of the project, for example, by failing to follow up properly.	4	2	8	Tine must give project management top priority for the three weeks the project lasts. She must bring her book The core of project management everywhere and use it diligently.	The four project members must regularly have project group meetings, and Tine must openly share the plans, so everyone knows what to do. That way, the others may intervene if Tine should overlook something or otherwise fail.	Henriette, Igor, and Lærke
Lærke loses faith in herself or gets distracted by, for example, her cell phone, so that she does not properly perform the tasks she is responsible for.	2	3	6	Tine must be careful when she delegates tasks to Lærke, and she must follow up.	Tine has to keep an eye on Lærke, so she can intervene if Lærke fails.	Tine